Notice: Vacancies and Appointments Report

To all interested applicants,

Attached is a report listing all boards, commissions, and task forces composed of Arizonans appointed by Governor Hobbs. Within the report is a summary of each board and commission in addition to two designations identifying the following, as of the date of this notice:

- Positions highlighted in YELLOW identify members whose terms have expired and may be seeking to step away to allow for a new voice,
- Positions highlighted in RED identify open (vacant) seats that our team is actively working to identify a new member.

With over 200 boards and commissions, embedded into almost every level of state government, we encourage all Arizonans interested in public service to apply!

To be considered, submit your application through the following link:

<https://bc.azgovernor.gov/bc/form/boards-and-commissions-application>

Any questions can be directed to our team at bc@az.gov.

Our team looks forward to working with you!

Respectfully,

Paul E. Brierley, Director

The Agricultural Employment Relations Board was established to provide a means to collectively bargain which is fair and equitable to agricultural employers, labor organizations and employees. The Board oversees a process by which the agricultural community may engage in labor organization activities and fair elections and by which declaration may be made whether certain acts are unfair labor practices and therefore subject to legal intervention. Additionally, the Board may prevent any person from engaging in unfair labor practices and shall have access, for the purpose of examination and the right to copy, any evidence of any person being investigated or proceeded against. The objectives of the Board are to foster labor peace and to provide a forum for this state's agricultural industry and employees to resolve labor disputes and to develop more constructive labor relations. More information may be found on their website through the Arizona Department of Agriculture. A.R.S. § 23-1386.

The Mining and Mineral Museum has a fascinating history dating back to the first Arizona Territorial Fair in 1884. The minerals were housed in an exhibit hall at the Arizona State Fairgrounds starting in 1919. In 1991, they were moved to the El Zaribah Shrine Building (renamed the Polly Rosenbaum Building) at 1502 W. Washington Street, on the Capitol Mall. From 1991-2011, the AMMM hosted tens of thousands of visitors and school children each year. The AMMNRE Museum Advisory Council is composed of Governor-appointed members representing Arizona's natural resource industries: mining, minerals, forestry, agriculture, livestock, and tourism, as well as members from Arizona's state legislature. Adam Stafford, Chair

The Committee was created by the Legislature to “provide a single forum for the expeditious resolution of all matters concerning the location of electric generating plants and transmission lines in a single proceeding to which access will be open to interested and affected individuals, groups, county and municipal governments and other public bodies to participate in these decisions.” (Laws 1971, Ch. 67, § 1) Utilities, with proposed power plants or transmission lines subject to Commission/Committee jurisdiction, are required to make an application with the Commission for a Certificate of Environmental Compatibility (CEC). The Committee considers, during public hearings, the matter(s) contained in the application relative to a series of factors specified in Section 40-360.06, Arizona Revised Statutes. Following these deliberations, the Committee makes a recommendation to the Commission regarding the CEC. The recommendation to the Commission may also include proposed conditions and/or restrictions. Subsequently, the Commission makes a final determination on the CEC application. The Commission votes on the CEC matter in a public proceeding and may accept, reject or modify the Committee’s recommendations. ARS 40-360.01

A district may be established under this subsection in the same county in which a district is established under subsection A of this section. A district formed pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed a county stadium district for purposes of this chapter. Notwithstanding any other law, a district may not be organized under this subsection from and after October 31, 1999, except that a district may be organized under this subsection after October 31, 1999 if before that date the governing body of two or more of the municipalities identified the location of a multipurpose facility site and has voted with the purpose of forming a district for multipurpose facilities under this subsection.

The board of directors of a district established under subsection B of this section shall consist of: five members who are appointed by the governor, at least three of whom must reside in the municipality in which the district is located and each of whom must have experience in commercial real estate, construction, redevelopment, real estate law, architecture, economic development or commercial or public finance. The governor may receive nominations for appointment from any interested organization or person. Members appointed by the governor serve at the pleasure of the governor. Two members who are appointed by the president of the senate, at least one of whom must reside in the municipality in which the district is located. The members appointed by the president serve at the pleasure of the president. Two members who are appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, at least one of whom must reside in the municipality in which the district is located. The members appointed by the speaker serve at the pleasure of the speaker. Laws 2009, 4th Special Session, Ch. 3. A.R.S. § 48-4202.

Chuck Podolak- Director

The Water Infrastructure Finance Authority of Arizona (WIFA) is an independent state authority authorized to finance the construction, rehabilitation, acquisition, and improvement of water infrastructure throughout Arizona. WIFA is governed by its board consisting of nine voting members appointed by the governor and legislative leadership and nine non-voting ex-officio members representing legislative leadership and relevant agency heads. The Authority administers several federal and state-capitalized programs, the Drinking Water State Revolving Fund, the Clean Water State Revolving Fund, the Water Supply Development Fund, the Water Conservation Grant Fund, and the Long-Term Water Augmentation Fund. Through these programs, WIFA protects current and future residents, the economy, and the environment of this state by funding a comprehensive water strategy that protects water quality, ensures reliability and access to safe drinking water, conserves water, improves the efficiency and reuse of existing water resources, and augments existing water resources with new renewable supplies of water. As a "Bond Bank" and state investment authority, WIFA has several sources of capital, including bonds offerings, federal grants, state appropriations, and the reinvestment of loan repayments to offer project financing at below-market interest rates and invest in Arizona's water future.
